

AmWINS

During the months of May through September, AmWINS Group Inc. participated in the firm's first Summer of Service, an initiative dedicated to helping the communities in which employees live and work. More than 2,000 employees donated just over 10,000 hours of community service, representing 34 offices and impacting 55 different organizations.

PPIB

This year Professional Program Insurance Brokerage (PPIB) volunteered at the Marine Mammal Center located in Sausalito, Calif, for the IICF's Week of Giving. PPIB was able to assist two days at the center sorting fish for the animals, scrubbing the pools that previous patients had been housed in, and providing overall cleaning and sanitation treatment. Shown: Northern elephant seal Fortissima stayed at The Marine Mammal Center for four months after being found alone on a beach at less than a month old. (Photo credit: Ingrid Overgard © The Marine Mammal Center)

Blue Goose

The Honorable Order of the Blue Goose International is a fraternal organization of individuals who work in the insurance related industry. Blue Goose members across the United States and Canada support hundreds of organizations in both countries with donations of goods, service hours and financial support. During its fiscal year ended June 2015, the group reported donations totaling in excess of $300,000 for charity, or nearly $80 per member.

Norman-Spencer Agency

In late 2014, Norman-Spencer Agency established the nonprofit foundation called NS Cares as a platform to help the various communities the agency serves, support national charities and organize volunteer efforts. In 2015, NS Cares raised $103,000 for various non-profits like the March of Dimes, Habitat for Humanity, Crayons to Classrooms and the American Heart Association. Employees have volunteered more than 150,000 in volunteer hours over the same time period.

Buddy Walk

Joyce Unkraut of KDHK Insurance believes strongly in the ideals of the Down Syndrome Association of Greater Cincinnati (DSAGC). She has been involved with the nonprofit's Buddy Walk fundraiser, shown here, since one of her friends had a child with Down syndrome 12 years ago and a nephew was born a couple of years later with Down syndrome. Fellow KDHK employees have since joined the cause, altogether raising more than $75,000 as part of the "Wolfie's Wieners" team.

All Risks

Tiffany Way in the All Risks Austin, Texas, office has a personal fundraiser attempting to raise $40,000 for the Children's Blood and Cancer Center of Austin. She is going to shave her head bald, then perform as her clown alias "Wendi Sillytoes" for the children on April 1, 2016. In addition to shaving her head, she is going to shave a logo of the largest corporate donation into her head for seven days. More information can be found: <https://www.linkedin.com/pulse/corporate-challenge-tiffany-way?trk=prof-post>

Applied Systems

This year, Applied Systems sponsored and supported hosting the Georgia Chapter's Drive for Charity event at TopGolf hosted by the Georgia Chapter Insurance Industry Charitable Foundation (IICF). Drive for Charity was the first annual event to support the IICF community grant's program in Georgia and invited local insurance industry professionals to compete against one another in golf driving and accuracy competitions. The event also features a silent auction, delicious refreshments and prizes throughout the night. The event was attended by more than 375 individuals and resulted in more than $100,000 for charity.

Member Insurance

Since 2003, Member Insurance Agency has been involved with the Big Brothers Big Sisters Lunch Buddy program. Once a week during the school year, Member Insurance employees visit with their "little" to play games, help with homework assignments, and be a friend that the child can rely on each and every week. The program offers a unique way for employees to volunteer their time, demonstrate their mentoring skills and serve as a role model.